Dear Dr. Lavery:

I am looking forward to meeting you in person on 26 October when you spend the day with Admiral Turner and his staff. Your suggestions for briefing topics were both excellent. I am in the process of tracking down the appropriate people to work up the presentation.

Enclosed you will find the publication I mentioned, East African Desert Locust Threat Increasing, as well as one on Soviet grain production. Hope you find them interesting.

Sincerely,

Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations and
External Analytical Support
